Host a Tiger Who Came to Tea Picnic

The Tiger Who Came to Tea

By Judith Kerr

Published by HarperCollins Children's Books

ISBN 978-0-007215-99-7

The doorbell rings just as Sophie and her mummy are sitting down to tea.

Who could it possibly be?

What they certainly don't expect to see at the door is a big furry, stripy tiger!

Materials

- Bread
- Butter/Spread
- Knife
- Plates
- Fillings for the sandwiches
- A selection of other snacks
- Teapot
- Beakers

- Have tea sets and animal masks/costumes for role play
- Have small world animals available
- Get the children roaring like tigers - how loud can they get?
- Have a game of sleeping tigers
- Try tiger face painting

Instructions

- Take advantage of the lovely weather and have a fun picnic!
- Invite your children to bring in a tiger teddy (or teddy bear) - you can invite parents/carers too for a wonderful family picnic at your setting.
- Let the children butter their bread, add a filling and cut their sandwiches before pouring a drink from the teapot!
- Have a space set out for the picnic and don't forget to finish with a reading of The Tiger Who Came to Tea.
